

GROONER Gruner Veltliner 2008

New and Noteworthy

“Lean, crisp, food-flexible, Grüner Veltliner has been a go-to white wine for sommeliers across the country for over a decade, but has been waiting for a breakout brand in the retail market. Could this new wine be it? Certainly it's a fine "starter Grüner," broader and softer on the palate than most, but with a classic tangy pineapple/grapefruit character--not to mention cool packaging. It is a genuine alternative: a delicious wine that doesn't taste remotely like Chardonnay or Sauvignon Blanc.”

- Richard Nalley

Imported by Frederick Wildman and Sons, Ltd.
www.frederickwildman.com